In The News...

Hoosier Air Museum News:

- ⇒ The first Texas Hold 'Em poker tournament was a huge success. Dwight Pinkerton led the organization and production with no discernable flaws. Twelve tables with nine players and one dealer at each table kept things lively. There were 108 players in attendance. There are plans for another tournament in the near future.
- ⇒ The October 12th Ed Fox Fish Fry was very successful with over 500 in attendance. Thank you for your support.
- ⇒ Tuskegee Airman Harold L. Gauden of Fort Wayne passed away at age 80. He was a fireman in the Army Air Corps and a supporter of the Hoosier Air Museum.
- ⇒ Mr. Niles Walton, one of the founders and a prime mover of the "Warbirds", has stepped down from his thirteen-year presidency. Niles and Ina have purchased a home in Fort Myers, FL and have joined the ranks of the Snowbirds. They are spending six months in Florida and summers in Auburn. Niles' health has vastly improved since a positive diagnosis and treatment has begun.
- ⇒ Mr. Brad Moore has been elected President. He has served as treasurer since Jeff Bassett stepped down from that position. Norma Krom was elected Treasurer and will continue Brad's good work... Mr. Moore is a Vice President with the DeKalb Financial Credit Union and a very recently licensed pilot.
